Rockbridge

Geo. Rish is suffering with a lame back at this writing. Protracted meeting is in progress at the A. C. Church, with a large attendance. Dr. Lee made a flying trip to Logan last week. Ed. Rish spent Sunday with his brother, George, and family. David Sater is the champion noodle eater. If you don't believe it just ask him. Mrs. Geo. Rish and children and Miss Della Mathias were Logan shoppers recently. Herbert Koehl is clerking for Kline Bros. at Enterprise. Mrs. Joseph Barron is very poorly at this writing. Mrs. Will Shaw and daughter, of Logan, spent Sunday with relatives here. Mrs. A. F. Mathias called on Mrs. Geo. Rish, Monday.

South Perry

C. F. Martin is moving over on his farm that he recently purchased of Charley Hoy on Little Pine. Miss Barbara Notestone, who has been sick for the past several weeks, is but little better. She is suffering with nervous ailments and other kindred diseases. Homer Hedges returned last week from a visit at Columbus and Lancaster. Quite a number of our people attended the Armstrong sale on Tuesday of last week. Fast Bros. have sold one of their farms over on the ridge to Mrs. Russell, who resides over on Middlefork. Miss Nellie Morris visited relatives in Laurelville over Sunday. Quite a number of our people are suffering with grippe, it being the first visitation to this section by this unwelcome visitor this season. Phillip Fast, Jr., is away this week on business at Logan, Lancaster and Columbus. Frank Cave has gone to work for Jas. Schaaf for the season, over near Tartton. Mr. and Mrs. Asa Gattson are making preparations to return to their home in Seattle, Washington. The latter's mother, Mrs. Ebert expects to accompany them as far as Medford, Oregon, to remain indefinitely. The many friends of George Drum, Sr., of Laurelville, were shocked to hear of his sudden death at his home at the above named place last Saturday.

Washington Tp.

Groundhog days are nearly gone by. And none hereabouts will ever cry: Of mud and chilling winds we've had enough. To stand all these one must be very tough. Now groundhog please hurry by, And March give us a little dry, So we can travel some on top And not have all mud and slop. Poor Si Hubbard will surely have to stay at home for a while until the pikes become more compact or invent a flying machine, and eat fewer and smaller buck-wheat cakes, or perhaps he might get some condensed food put up in small capsules, while traveling over the muddy pikes, using the improved mud shoe and leave his high perfumed rubber boots on the hills 1 1/2 miles East of Logan. Mrs. John W. Hes, of Circleville, O., is visiting in our midst, and enjoying good health. Mrs. L. L. Clark, who has been on the sick list for sometime, is slowly improving, but will require some time yet to regain health. The protracted meeting at Hes-boro, closed the 27th., after a goodly revival at that place. Messrs. F. L. Souder, Charles Alkire and James Lindsey are the champion sled builders, of our country, and any one in need of a good new sled should employ them without fail. We learn the mumps are moving south from Marion Tp., and have stopped awhile at W. J. North's, where Will Mowery holds a fat jaw and thinks eating pickles is no fun. Miss Florence Huggins has arrived home after a weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Jas. M. Brown, of Falls Tp. J. W. Schaaf was seen in Hesboro a few days ago, and called on the village merchants and James Harden while there. Noah Woolever and Chas. E. Flum are the hustling pioneers of the forest, and are clearing up a lot of timber lands this winter.

Stringtown

Ringhizer called on Mrs. Peter Weaver, Tuesday. James Woods, wife and son, Clinton, spent Monday evening with W. H. Nixon and family. Samuel Lentz spent Sunday with Miss Lena Weaver. BILLY.

Big Pine Valley

Everything along the valley is peace and pleasure, and business is doing fine. Mr. Vera Kitchen, is breaking a young horse. Miss Mazel Lama called on Becca Paxton, Friday afternoon. Mr. George Cupp, the merchant of Pursell is laying in a supply of goods, call and see him. Charley Febes and wife, will move on the Will Vancouver farm, in the near future. Will Lay made a business trip to South Bloomingville, Saturday. Our school is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Nellie Finney. Mr. Lewis Keister and Miss Hazel Febes called on Bertha Huffman, Saturday evening. Hiram Davis and Bert Febes are engaged in hauling logs at present. Quite a number of the young people have been attending the protracted meeting, at South Bloomingville. Mr. Guy Huffman attended meeting on Sam's Creek, Saturday evening. Mr. John Carr, the huckster of South Perry is seen in our valley each Monday, when roads will permit, and is doing a profitable business. Say brother readers of this paper, what are you wishing for; the young men here are wishing for snow, and the old men are wishing for summer. March, our first spring month, we welcome you, and hope you will bring us nice weather and good roads. On March the 1st, The Death Angel visited the home of Mr. Lafe Chilcote and called the little daughter away. Well Uncle Si, how are you getting along, nearly every one we meet along this valley say, we've got the lagrippe. Please don't let the grippe catch you.

Foltz and wife last Sunday. Mrs. Minnie Thompson, of Columbus, is visiting relatives at this place at present.

Nickel Plate

We have plenty of mud, rain and all kinds of weather. Mud is the order of the day, the roads are almost impassable. William Palmer, of Marion Tp., was an over night guest in the home of J. J. Keller, last week. Alfred Gessells has moved in his home, formerly owned by Frank Shaw. E. P. Kreider, who visited Mr. Andrew Voris, Saturday of last week, returned home, Sunday. Henry Lutz will move soon in his own home, lately purchased from Henry Trimmer. John Bright and family were the Sunday guests of his brother-in-law, John Cramblit, near Nickel Plate. Eli Patton took dinner, last Saturday, with his daughter, Mrs. E. P. Kreider. E. D. Harden had his barn raised, last week, and it will soon be completed. Mrs. William Pargeon, who has been quite sick with La Grippe, is better at this writing. J. J. Keller and daughter, Zola, spent Saturday evening in Logan. The three men named in the coon hunt have abandoned the hunt until a snow falls, it is too muddy now to see any tracks and besides they thought it would be best to learn the difference between a coon track and a polecat before they start out again.

Mullen Ridge

Well, muddy, windy, blustering March is here again. If there is any thing in the old-time saying, "Come in like a lion," it will surely "Go out like a lamb." We hope it may. Mrs. George Wright, who was taken to the hospital several weeks ago, is reported as recovering slowly. Mrs. Wm. Palmer is reported sick this week. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davidson
